Dear Sir/Madam,

I want to inform you that I am [your name], resigning from my position as [job title] from the [company name], effective on [date]. Kindly consider this as my one-month notice.

I am writing this resignation letter because I am dissatisfied with my recent salary increase. As the sole breadwinner, I need to support my family. For this, I have worked very hard in the company. Despite my contributions and experience, I am not recognized enough.

Although it may be a tough decision, it's necessary to make it. It was a pleasure working with you and I wish the organization all the success.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Signature.
